Ann Martin, Washington, DC, for Respondent

ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS DECISION¹

On June 20, 2012, Petitioner filed a petition seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program ("the Vaccine Program"). On July 12, 2013, the parties filed a proffer detailing an amount to be awarded to Petitioner. The special master previously assigned to this case subsequently issued a decision finding the parties' proffer to be reasonable and granting Petitioner the award outlined by the proffer.

On January 31, 2014, counsel for both parties filed a joint stipulation concerning attorney's fees and costs. The parties have stipulated that Petitioner's counsel should receive a ¹ Because this decision contains a reasoned explanation for my action in this case, I will post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, § 205, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (codified as amended at 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2006)). As provided by Vaccine Rule 18(b), each party has 14 days within which to request redaction "of any information furnished by that party: (1) that is a trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical files or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy." lump sum of $14,128.07, in the form of a check payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. This amount represents a sum to which Respondent does not object.

Additionally, the parties have stipulated that Petitioner should receive a lump sum of $461.10, in the form of a check payable to Petitioner alone. This amount represents the costs personally borne by Petitioner to which Respondent does not object.

I approve the requested amount for attorney's fees and costs as reasonable. Accordingly, an award in the amount of $14,128.07 should be made in the form of a check payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Clifford J. Shoemaker. In addition, an award in the amount of $461.10 should be made in the form of a check payable to Petitioner alone. In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
